WELCOME TO Washington University

Undergraduate Admissions Danforth Campus

As you can see from the regional map on the back of this sheet, Washington University’s Danforth Campus is centrally located in the St. Louis metropolitan area and is readily accessible from the major highways.

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport is a short drive or cab ride away.

For directions to campus, go to admissions.wustl.edu and click on “Visit.”

For GPS directions, use “Brookings Quadrangle, St. Louis, MO 63130” as your destination.

NOTE: The Office of Undergraduate Admissions is located in the south wing of Brookens Hall at the top of the grand staircase. An accessible entrance and parking are located at the south end of the building. (See the visitor parking permit for more information on parking.)
